

Today, we celebrate the sending of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit's presence is a reminder in our lives that Christ's words are true: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." In other words, while we are sent on a mission, we are not sent alone. Rather, we are sent a relationship with God. It's His strength that leads to any successes, and ultimately the mission of Christ is His work. Our role is simply to cooperate. From this perspective, we can see that everything we have—our personality, our health, our intelligence, our resources—are all gifts from God. Gifts that He gives to us so that we can in turn use them to participate in His mission. To take part in his work. This perspective can change the way we approach something like our diocese's Annual Appeal, an important initiative to support our local Church. When we see that all is a gift from God, our questions shift from, "Do I feel like supporting His Church?" to "How can I support His Church? How is God calling me to take part in His work in this way?" Today, on Pentecost Sunday, ask the Holy Spirit for help in answering these questions, and then prayerfully consider your contribution.

*Verbatim from the Annual Diocesan Appeal

Today, we celebrate the sending of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit's presence is a reminder in our lives that Christ's words are true: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." In other words, while we are sent on a mission, we are not sent alone. Rather, we are sent a relationship with God. It's His strength that leads to any successes, and ultimately the mission of Christ is His work. Our role is simply to cooperate. From this perspective, we can see that everything we have—our personality, our health, our intelligence, our resources—are all gifts from God. Gifts that He gives to us so that we can in turn use them to participate in His mission. To take part in his work. This perspective can change the way we approach something like our diocese's Annual Appeal, an important initiative to support our local Church. When we see that all is a gift from God, our questions shift from, "Do I feel like supporting His Church?" to "How can I support His Church? How is God calling me to take part in His work in this way?" Today, on Pentecost Sunday, ask the Holy Spirit for help in answering these questions, and then prayerfully consider your contribution.

*Verbatim from the Annual Diocesan Appeal

Acknowledge your Graduates

Please forward information about your recent Graduates!

Please include:

School Graduated from and date.

Name of college they plan on attending if applicable.

Graduates will be acknowledged in the parish
bulletin.

Have all information in by June 19th.

Acknowledge your Graduates

Please forward information about your recent Graduates!

Please include:

School Graduated from and date.

Name of college they plan on attending if applicable.

Graduates will be acknowledged in the parish
bulletin.

Have all information in by June 19th.